THE FRASER FIR WREATH

This is a robust and splendid wreath and easily identified by its blueish color. Its rounder needles allow a better needle retention. Added to these characteristics, its branches are stiffer granting it the possibility of hanging great decorations.

OUR WREATHS

Whether you hang them on doors or set them in windows, the Christmas tree wreaths are always well appreciated during the holiday season. Their freshness is assured thanks to the fact that the branches are cut directly on our own farms and because of their meticulous storage. You will stand out from your competitors due to the color and because of the fact that they are handmade.
